The Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010 refer to these powers and responsibilities as “parental responsibilities”. It is not affected by the relationship between the parents, such as whether or not they have lived together or are married. A court order, such as under the Family Law Act, may take away the authority of a parent to do something, or may give it to another person.

GUARDIANS

A guardian of a child also has parental responsibilities. A legal guardian is given parental responsibilities by a court order. The definition of “guardian” under the Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010 also covers situations where a child does not live with their parents and there are no court orders. In these cases. The guardian is the person the child lives with who has day-to-day care and control of the child.
